

UIC Pipeline to an Inclusive Faculty (PIF) Program
Continuing Student Applicant Transmittal Form
Summer 2018 Competition

(completed by the student)

Acknowledging the lack of diversity in college faculty around the country, the UIC Pipeline to an Inclusive Faculty (PIF) Program is designed to recruit and support outstanding underrepresented PhD students, who are committed to pursuing careers as faculty members. PIF scholars will receive generous stipend funding over four years (three years of fellowship and one year of top-off funding added to an assistantship) as well as mentoring, networking, grant-writing, and professional development experiences.
